Christmas in Charleston

December 11-13, 2026

Charleston is one of the earliest cities in which the African presence in North America began. While the tortured circumstances of human bondage and enslavement will never be erased, more attention has turned to the valuable retention of African cultural expression. Rather than being seen as laborers with no history or cultural heritage, Africans and their descendants are credited with having shared agricultural, technical, culinary, artistic, and other talents that help define the Lowcountry and the nation.

Come and enjoy the Christmas season in Charleston and discover Charleston's unique African American historical and cultural traditions, past and present.

Friday, December 11, 2026

We will leave Raleigh at 7:00 a.m. and head to Charleston. Before we check into the hotel, we will stop at Boone Hall Plantation which was founded in 1681 when Englishman Major John Boone came to Charleston and established a lucrative plantation and gracious home on the banks of Wampacheone Creek. The family and descendants of Major Boone were influential in the history of South Carolina, the colonies and the nation. We will tour the Home, gardens, slave cabins and have a Gullah Presentation. We will then head to the hotel to freshen up.

Later that evening, we will head to the Spirit Line Dinner Cruise aboard the Spirit of Carolina. We will enjoy a three course dinner while we cruise through the beautiful Charleston Harbor.

Saturday, December 12, 2026

We will have a full day of Charleston. We will start off with a visit to the Market where you can buy souvenirs, low country spices, art work, t shirts and more. You might even see some basket weavers.

After the market, we will tour the Emmanuel Baptist Church (tentative/TBD). If I cannot get reservations, we will substitute another activity in this time slot.

Later that afternoon, we will enjoy a spectacular Christmas Show at the Charleston Music Hall. We will then head to dinner at the Charleston Crab House and after dinner ride through the Christmas Light Show on James Island.

Sunday December 13, 2026

Before heading home, we will start off with a Carriage Ride through the historic section of Charleston. Afterwards, we will visit the International African American Museum. This is a museum of African-American history in Charleston, South Carolina, on the site where Gadsden's Wharf, the disembarkation point of up to 40% of all American enslaved persons, once stood.

Pricing includes: roundtrip motorcoach transportation, two night hotel stay, Boone Hall Tour of Historic House and Gardens with Gullah presentation, Dinner on the Spirit of Charleston, Dinner on Jamestown Island at the Charleston Crab House, Carriage ride in Charleston, time in the market, admission to the International African American Museum, Jamestown Christmas Lights, Taxes and tips on inclusions.
