Paradise Travels and Tours Presents "Jonah"
At the Sight & Sound Theatre Lancaster, PA

"Where the Bible Comes to Life"

Friday, July 09, 2027

Leave Raleigh early Friday morning and drive to Lancaster, PA. Check into hotel later that afternoon. Dinner at a local Amish Restaurant. Evening is free to relax and get ready for the next day.

Saturday: July 10, 2027

In addition to the performance of 'Jonah', we will embark on a guided tour of Lancaster County's old-fashioned charm and homespun warmth that stems from the Amish community. The tour will take us by some through scenic Pennsylvania Dutch Country where we will discover Amish Communities where life moves at a slower pace and centers around time-honored traditions and values. You'll find beautiful scenery dotted with one-room schoolhouses and wooden covered bridges, modern farm machinery being pulled behind four-and six-mule teams, homemade clothing and quilts gently blowing in the breeze, and where you'll hear the clip-clop of horses' hooves echoing down quiet country roads. We will stop at road side stands, craft store, and an Amish Bakery. We will also spend time at Kitchen Kettle Village, which boasts 42 shops, homemade Pennsylvania Dutch sweets, and delicious canned goods.

Afterwards, we will take a ride on the Strasburg Railroad where we will be able to view the Amish Country from the rails.

Before we head to the Sight and Sound theater for the performance of "Jonah", we will have dinner at another Amish restaurant before heading to the Theatre.

A WHALE OF A TALE

Jonah, a prophet and a man trying to outrun his calling from God, leads him straight to his enemy. Although his uncharted adventures lead him off a ship tossed by a storm and into the belly of a giant fish, Jonah believes all hope is lost. He soon learns how to receive grace and extend mercy. From the moment you walk into the theatre and experience the incredible sets, costumes, lighting, immersive scenes, and special effects, you will be on the edge of your seats.
